The phrase "Grief was our lot on the day she died" is a reference to Purim, the Festival of Lots. Instead of feeling joy on the festival, they felt sadness.

P. N.
Break out in unrestrained lamentations over the death of a respected woman, a homemaker, who was kind to the needy - Marat Reys'che, daughter of our Teacher and Master, Chaver Yechiel (blessed be the memory of the righteous and holy ones). She was the crown of her husband and treasured by her children and her children's children. Therefore all of us who knew her feel pain. Grief was our lot on the day she died; the first weekday, 14th Adar. She was buried on the 4th weekday,
17th of the same month, in the year (5)621
May her soul be bound up in the bond of eternal life
